SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Join us on a sensory journey through 'The Garden of England' with a contemporary twist on classic pudding recipes, each with their own Kentish claims.

Canterbury Pudding

10,00

cherry brandy, martell vs, lemon juice, sugar syrup, egg white, angostura bitters

There are many variations of Canterbury Puddings - a stodgy, filler-upper that came about to fuel agricultural labourers and, when there was such an industry, the Kentish coal miners. A good slug of brandy seems to be an agreed ingredient in Canterbury Pudding, which provides the base of this cocktail.

Cherry Batter Pudding ^{PB}

old j cherry spiced rum, raisin infused amaretto, kent apple juice, maraschino cherry

Batter puddings haven't always been the binding component of a great roast, they started as a sweet treat. It was the glutinous Henry VIII that ordered for some 40,000 acres of cherry trees to be planted close by, in Teynham. No surprise then, that many English cherry recipes can be traced back to Kent.

Gypsy Tart ^{PB}

chapel down chardonnay vodka, butterscotch, kahlua, oat milk, nutmeg

Our potable take on a Kentish classic, famously made from 3 ingredients. The tart was named after the gypsy children that were fed by a lady from Kent who made them a sweet pudding made from pie crust, milk & sugar.

Kent Lent Pie

chapel down bacchus gin, hidalgo px triana sherry, cream, egg white, lemon, lime, vanilla, fever-tree soda water

Also known as 'Folkestone Pudding Pie' this treat came about in the days when Lent was strictly observed. Eggs, lemon, sugar, milk, butter, flour, currants & nutmeg to make a cheesecake of sorts. This drink uses a fistful of those ingredients to create a boozy, grown-up cocktail with a difference, great for sipping in the sun.

Kent Apple & Raspberry Crumble ^{PB}

greensand ridge raspberry ghost, kent apple juice, sugar, lime

The first written recipe for Apple pie goes back to 1381 and was printed by Geoffrey Chaucer, poet & keen gardener. His instructions were to "Take good Apples and good Spices and Figs and raisins and Pears and when they are well cut up (and) well-coloured with saffron, put them into a coffin and set it forth to bake well"

Kent Summer Cup ^{PB}

anno elderflower vodka, sipsmith london cup, fever-tree ginger ale, cucumber, summer fruit, rosemary

Quite simply, our take on the classic Pimm's Cup... a true summer favourite.

Can't see anything that tickles your taste buds? Fancy an Espresso Martini or a Mojito instead?

Feel free to ask for your favourite classic cocktail or allow us to recommend one for you, we'll do our best to accommodate your request.
