Traditional Balti Triangle (Historic Heart of Balti Curry)

This area is recognised as the birthplace of the iconic Birmingham Balti, forming a cluster of restaurants along Ladypool Road, Stoney Lane and Stratford Road.

1. Balti Triangle – 200 Ladypool Rd, Sparkbrook, Birmingham B12 8JS

A collective name used for several curry houses in the historic Balti Triangle. A great starting point if you want to experience the atmosphere of the original Balti hub. Balti houses here typically serve authentic Balti curries in traditional Balti bowls.

These restaurants are known locally for great Balti and curry dishes – some outside the classic Triangle but worth the short trip:

2. Shababs Balti Restaurant – 163–165 Ladypool Road, Sparkbrook, Birmingham B12 8LQ

One of the most famous surviving Balti houses in Birmingham, located in the Balti Triangle. Offers a traditional Balti experience with vegetarian, vegan and halal options available.

3. Popular Balti Tandoori – Ladypool Road, Sparkbrook, Birmingham

An authentic balti and South Asian cuisine favourite on Ladypool Road, loved for its rich, flavourful Balti curries.

4. Royal Watan – Pershore Road, Selly Park, Birmingham

A well-liked spot for Balti and Kashmiri cuisine outside the Triangle, with a strong local following and home-style dishes.

5. Diwan Balti Restaurant – Alcester Road, Balsall Heath, Birmingham

Highly rated for authentic Balti and Indian dishes. A short distance from the original Triangle and ideal for a casual meal.

6. Akram's – Pershore Road, Stirchley

A family-run curry house with strong reviews for Balti and Kashmiri classics.

7. Balti Bazaar – 1267–1269 Pershore Rd, Stirchley, Birmingham

Great for tasty Balti and Indian dishes in a friendly setting.
