

Canals Room Package Recommendation List

Bars & Drink Spots on the Water

Perfect if you're after drinks with a view – whether it's cocktails, wine, craft beers or a canal-side pint:

- Pitcher & Piano Birmingham – Classic cocktail bar with a lively atmosphere and waterside seating.
- All Bar One Brindleyplace – Stylish wine and cocktail bar great for social drinks by the canal.
- BOX Brindleyplace – Sports bar with drinks and screens – fun for group meetups.
- Canalside Bar – Hidden gem pub with laid-back vibes right on Gas Street Basin.
- The Botanist Gas Street Basin – Well-loved canalside restaurant and bar with a broad drinks list and scenic terrace.

Classic Pubs & Lively Hangouts

Near the basin and canal towpath, these are great for casual pints, pub grub and socialising with local character:

- The Canal House Bar & Grill – Classic British pub with outdoor seating.
- PennyBlacks – Busy bar with burgers, drinks and entertainment.
- The Distillery & Noel's Bar – Fun pubs with relaxed vibes and good drinks.
- The Flapper – Great for a beer garden vibe, often with live music.

Canal Tours & Boat Experiences:

1. Brindley Cruises – Classic canal boat tours
2. Sherborne Wharf Ltd – Heritage boat trips & charters

Other Water-Based or Canal-Related Activities:

1. Roundhouse Birmingham – Water sports & guided experiences

This hub delivers canal-side activities like kayaking, paddleboarding and themed water tours – great if you want something active on the canals rather than a boat trip.

2. Dudley Canal and Caverns – Canal heritage attraction

Not in the city centre but a must-see if you're interested in canal history – they run underground canal boat tours through historic tunnels and cave sections, combining archaeology with waterways exploration.
