

Gourmet Itinerary

Day 1:

Wroxeter Vineyard

The Romans were renowned for setting up their vineyards wherever their empire spread and this was also true of Wroxeter and their vineyard. There is now a wide variety of wines produced on the site which can be purchased from the website, and they also lead fun and interesting tours around the site for all members of the public www.wroxetervineyard.co.uk

Day 2:

Ironbridge Brewery

Ironbridge brewery is an award winning micro brewery situated in the heart of a town that is renowned for its history. The traditional town therefore gets its ale locally produced using traditional brewing methods. All of the produce can be tasted in the on sight bar and there is also a shop for you to take home the ale of your choice as a reminder of your time here in Ironbridge. www.ironbridgebrewery.co.uk

River Tours

If you're looking for a tour along the river Severn then Sabrina is the boat for you. Sabrina tours the severn from Shrewsbury's Welsh bridge to the English bridge and back. Sabrina no only offers you the opportunity to take in the breathtaking scenery that you can encounter along the route of the Severn but also provides commentary, river maps, and a wide variety of food and drinks on boards from the bar.

Day 4:

Ludlow Food Centre

The Ludlow food centre is a combination of farming, food production and retailing into one shopping experience. The shop is surrounded by 8 kitchens, which are visible through glass windows, producing 50% of the award winning food the centre sells, the rest being sourced from the surrounding counties of Worcester, Herefordshire and Powys. By attending a guided tour you can see how they manage to do this from behind the scenes where all your questions can be answered. Tours are priced at around £125 + VAT.
